404 is a platform for information, interviews, analyses, artistic expression and discussion of ideas in a manner that respects our pluralistic society and the fundamental freedoms enshrined in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, including freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression.

To ensure that our platform fosters respect for others, 404 asks that our contributors comply with certain ethical guidelines. For this reason, texts, videos and artistic works published in 404 may not contain:

- Speech that is hateful or that incites violence, terrorism or violent extremism
- Speech that is discriminatory towards a person or group of people based on their origin, sex, sexual orientation, age or disability
- Speech that incites the commission of any crime or offence, or that promotes suicide
- Speech that incites the use of a weapon, alcohol, drugs or illegal substances
- Content that is racist, xenophobic, homophobic, sexist, ageist, revisionist, negationist, pedophilic, or pornographic, or that diminishes human dignity
- Content that threatens personal privacy, image rights or the reputations of others
- Fake news

Furthermore, our contributors agree to:

- Avoid all forms of plagiarism
- Verify that all studies, data and statistics come from reliable and scientifically recognized sources
- Ensure that all content submitted is royalty-free
- Submit texts that are gender-neutral/gender-inclusive
- Avoid being in a conflict of interest or presenting the appearance of a conflict of interest
- Not submit disguised or indirect advertising
- Please note that all contributions to 404 are submitted free of charge

The 404 editorial committee reserves the right to refuse any article in the event of non-compliance with these rules.
